

Words With Wallop For High C Respecting The Authority Of Others

DISC Behavior Styles: C for Conscientiousness

Reserved & Task-Oriented

Need: Respecting authority

Speak these words with wallop to reserved & task-oriented individuals who need to recognize the dutiful authorities deserving respect.

---

Quotes From Aung San Suu Kyi

Myanmar statesperson, politician, diplomat, author

~~~~~

Expecting military authority to be dutiful to the country

“I don't want to see the military falling. I want to see the military rising to dignified heights of professionalism and true patriotism.”

Words With Wallop

“Identify ways you can support authorities who act with dignified professionalism.”

Looking for signs of dutiful authority

“This was the way I was brought up to think of politics, that politics was to do with ethics, it was to do with responsibility, it was to do with service, so I think I was conditioned to think like that, and I'm too old to change now.”

Words With Wallop:

“Does this authority demonstrate ethics by respecting your rights?”

“Does this authority demonstrate responsibility by asking about your needs?”

“Does this authority demonstrate service by providing the resources you need to create success for yourself?”